Teej Celebration

Date-3/8/2019

The jovial festival of Teej was celebrated with fervor and gaiety at the Gulzar Group of Institutions. Teej refers to the monsoon festival observed, particularly in the western and northern states of India. The girls recited Bolian and performed Giddha to welcome the Saavan-the month of rain, with which the festival is associated. The girls wearing traditional, colorful dresses broke into the dance to the beats of dhol and music.

There were different events organized on the day like Literary, Fine arts, Sports, Rangoli, Nail art competitions, poster making, Tattoo making and spot photographing activities, etc.

A musical performance was also presented by the students.
